Mrs. A. T. Sanford will entertain at a first party in a series of informal parties this afternoon at her apartment in the Virginia.

Mrs. Fred Kleinschmidt will be hostess at a bridge tea at her home this afternoon.

Mrs. S. O. S. Nelson will entertain informally this afternoon for Mrs. W. R. Wightman.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet at 1 o'clock today with Mrs. A. J. Gorham at 715 Second avenue.

V. A. Bettelton, who is to be married the last of this month, will be guest of honor at a stag dinner at the Louvre, this evening.

The parlors of the First Presbyterian church, prettily decorated in autumn leaves and flowers, were the scene of a pretty reception Friday evening, given by the Ladies of the Aid society in honor of the new members of the church. The rooms were filled with members and friends, who were received by Dr. W. M. Paden and his sister, Miss Paden, and the elders of the church and their wives, including Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Francis. A delightful feature of the evening was the musical numbers given. Pianola solos were given by Miss Gladys McCaughy, Miss Kate Allen, Miss Paden, Miss Alice Martin and Miss Joy De Camp, of New Jersey. Vocal selections were given by Mr. Kesselberg and Rowland Williams, and Miss Esther Allen gave a violin solo, while Mrs. John Read gave one of her delightful readings.

The Misses Margaret Aamot, Edith Deane and Eunice Golding entertained thirty-five at the home of the latter at a china shower Friday evening, in honor of Miss Emily Coswell, a November bride. The hall and parlors were bright with sprays of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, while the dining room was prettily decorated in pink. A chrysanthemum piece over pink satin covered the tea table, with a vase of pink chrysanthemums in the center. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Myrtle Jack. Games and music were enjoyed.

Miss Elies Yates entertained six tables at cards Friday afternoon, in honor of Miss Veda Beebe, an autumn bride. The parlors and library were decorated with many strings of hearts of a variety of colors, while red hearts were strung in the dining room, and a mound of red dahlias formed the table centerpiece. Miss Yates was assisted by Miss Mary Lynch. Prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Quigley, Miss Emma Quigley, of Joliet, Ill., and by the guest of honor.

A charming bridge tea, Friday afternoon was that given by Mrs. J. E. Jennings, at her home on East South Temple. Yellow was the color scheme prettily carried out, with large clusters of yellow nasturtiums used throughout the room. A yellow crystal bowl of them occupied the center of the table. Nine tables were played, following which a number went in to tea. Mrs. Jennings was assisted by Mrs. W. W. Ritter and Mrs. G. T. Hader. Prizes were won by Mrs. F. W. Jennings, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. W. D. Donohoe, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mrs. J. A. Jennings, Mrs. Robert Glendinning and Mrs. James Hogle.

Mrs. J. L. Kiser and Miss Jeanette Kiser, who have spent several weeks with Mrs. Kiser's son, W. P. Kiser and her daughter, Mrs. Dodge, will leave today for Colorado Springs and Denver, Colorado, where they will visit. Later Mrs. Kiser will return to her home in Davenport, Iowa, and Miss Kiser will visit Colonel and Mrs. Donohoe at Colfax, Iowa, a mineral springs resort.

The first hop of the season at the post was enjoyed at the hop hall, Friday evening, by the post folks and a number of friends from town and was followed by a buffet supper at the Aramith quarters, when Major and Mrs. J. M. Aramith entertained about thirty of their friends.

J. G. Sawyer has returned from a trip to New York, and has joined Sawyer and son, who have spent the past two weeks here with Mrs. Sawyer's mother, Mrs. Dickert. Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer and son will return today to their home in Halley, Idaho.

Miss Sarah Spalding, who has spent the summer with her mother and sister in Denver, Colorado, will be home Saturday. Bishop Spalding will return about November 15, when the Spaldings will again be at home at 441 East First South street.

In Chicago, Illinois, today will take place the wedding of Miss Breslano and Frank Bersbach, the latter a brother of Mrs. Sam Porter, who, with her husband and children, is there to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and daughter, Miss Ruth, have gone to the Chapman ranch, in Wyoming, where they will remain for several weeks when they will return to their home in Boston, Mass., for the winter.

Mrs. D. O. McEwan, who has spent several weeks here with her sister and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mount, will leave Thursday for her home in Omaha, Nebraska.

Arno G. Thies, who is on his way from Long Beach, California, to his home in Denver, Colorado, will spend a few days here with his uncle, Dr. E. D. Hammond.

Miss Gertrude Van Wyck, sister of Mrs. A. V. Callaghan, and Earl Potter of New York, will be married in San Francisco, California, today.

Mrs. John Sharp entertained the twelve members of her sewing club at her home Friday afternoon. It was the first meeting this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Steiner have as their guest Mrs. Porter Stover of Freeport, Illinois, who will spend several weeks here.

Mrs. P. S. Barnett and children have landed in Honolulu where they will spend several months with Mrs. Barnett's sister.

Miss Maude Bailey of Buckhannon, West Virginia, is visiting a few days with Mrs. Fred Knudsen and Mrs. B. S. Stewart.

Mrs. Walter Filer left the first of the week for Southern California.

Frank Keyser left Thursday for San Francisco, California, after spending a few days here with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Keyes.

Mrs. J. W. Delano, who has spent several weeks in the Pacific Northwest, will be home the first of the month.

C. R. Hickey of Nampa, Idaho, has been spending a few days here with Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo.

Mrs. F. E. McGarrin entertained a few friends at her apartment in the Bransford, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Hampton and daughter, Jane, are spending some time in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Flashman are rejoicing over the arrival of a son.

Well Known Hotel Keeper Uses and Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I take pleasure in saying that I have kept Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family medicine chest for about fifteen years, and have always had satisfactory results from its use. I have administered it to a great many traveling men who were suffering from troubles for which it is recommended, and have never failed to relieve them," says J. C. Jenkins, of Glasgow, Ky. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Have you read "Lights and Shadows of Mormonism"? Perhaps prejudice prevents your securing this book. IT IS NOT ABUSIVE. It is an analytical and logical study of Mormonism and prevailing conditions in Utah. You owe it to yourself to read this book. Price $1.25. For sale by all newsdealers and at The Tribune office. $764.38 Panguitch Money

We collected $764.38 last week for the State Bank of Garfield, Panguitch, Utah. This is one more of the thousands of claims we collect. This association collects for everybody. It protects the merchants by telling them of those who pay, and of those who do not pay, and collects for all people, all kinds of honest debts. A claim once recorded, stays on the records forever, and if settled, is always a shining mark for the one who paid. Turn in your claims and we will collect some for you.
